

William Martin to Andrew Jackson, January 4, 1809, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

WILLIAM MARTIN TO JACKSON.

Jefferson, [Tenn.?], January 4, 1809.

Dear Genl. I have Just time to inform you, that I have seen the Negroes at Robertses which I was to set a price on, and think them worth nine hundred Dollars. This information, I have also communicated to Mr Cage. who says that if you are not satisfied with the price, he will willingly take them, and pay up the balance. . . .